

This project focused its research on the imagined, historic and living memory in relation to The Spout in Spout Lane. Researching aspects of community gathering and memory of The Spout, O'Connell invited stories from young and old and held presentations and workshops in the secondary and primary schools which together informed her artistic ideas and outcome.

Part two of the project needs your involvement come along and be filmed - as part of the social archive.

Drawing The Water

The event will be opened by Jimmy Deenihan T.D. Minister for Arts, Heritage and The Gaeltacht.

You are invited to the public screening of Drawing The Water, a short high definition video artwork made in response to The Spout, a social water scheme dating from 1860. This will be followed by a free Ceili with music from The Striolán Ceili Band with refreshments.

Sat 23 June
